Bruce Dale With more than 2,000 photographs published by National Geographic, his vision and creativity twice earned him the title "Magazine Photographer of the Year." More recently, his work brought him honors from the Smithsonian Institution. He writes "Notes From The Field," a column in PCPhoto Magazine.

Bob Krist Krist works regularly on assignment for National Geographic Traveler. He writes extensively about techniques from his travel photography in Outdoor Photographer's "Photo Traveler" column. His books include In Tuscany, a collaboration with author Frances Mayes. It spent a month on The New York Times bestseller list.

Frans Lanting Hailed as one of the most influential nature photographers of our time, his latest project, Life: A Journey Through Time, garnered critical acclaim from photographers and nature conservationists alike. His work has been commissioned frequently by National Geographic, where he served as a Photographer-In-Residence.

David Middleton He has led more than 150 nature/photography tours and 200-plus photography workshops, including those for the National Audubon Society and the National Wildlife Federation. He has published 10 books, including, A Photographer's Guide to Vermont, A Photographer's Guide to the Maine Coast and A Photographers Guide to the Oregon Coast.
